

Cut flowers sustainably grown in the Skagit Valley

2010 “BOUQUET OF THE WEEK” CSA

Treat yourself or a loved one to a dazzling variety of sustainably grown fresh local flowers!

During the season of your choice an abundant bouquet (12-14” diameter) of Skagit Valley bounty will be delivered each Friday to a convenient pick-up location in the Madison Park and Ravenna neighborhoods.

The cost is $40 per week for an eight week season, $50 per week delivered to your door. Delivery option available for the following zip codes: 98112 and 98115.

Sign up today! Subscriptions limited to 12 per season for 2010.

spring~May 7, 14, 21, 28, June 4, 11, 18 & 25

Offerings vary by week and will include most of the following throughout the season: blooming branches, hellebores, ranunculus, sweet peas, anemones, tulips, stock, garden perennials, peonies and sunflowers, plus a rich array of foliage and texture, all grown right on the farm, just miles from your home.

summer~July 9, 16, 23 30, August 6, 13, 20 & 27

Most of the following will be included at different times during the season: sunflowers, lilies, herbs, fruiting branches, hydrangeas, dahlias, summer grasses and seed pods, garden phlox, artichokes, and a rich array of traditional and unusual perennials. You can have it both ways... enjoy all the abundance of summer without fleecing your own garden.

fall~September 10, 17, 24, October 1, 8, 15, 22 & 29

Mark subtle changes in the harvest season and celebrate the colors of fall with most of the following offerings: rose hips, dahlias, sunflowers, amaranth, fruit on the vine, crabapple and chestnut branches, celosia, coloring grasses, a variety of seed pods, decorative kale, fall perennials, heirloom mums, rich foliage tones and much more.
